Recommendations for members in dealing with disruptions on construction sites

There is an invasion of construction sites they so called 'Federation for Radical Economic Transformation' is receiving serious government attention, it is important for our members to be prepared, to be clear on their rights and how to deal with such situation.

“ President Cyril Ramaphosa says, “This is not radical economic transformation – this is radical economic robbery.”

What to do if your construction site is threatened by the “construction mafia?”

- ‘Report this matter to your local police commander without delay, particularly if there have been threats of violence’,
- Keep Record in writing of all parties involved,
- Take pictures or videos of the person & their actions and the images/footage of it must have a date on,
- To avoid penalties, keep your client informed of the situation,
- ‘Take detailed notes throughout of the incident – which may be protracted.’
- Apply for urgent court interdict – very costly exercise.
